Do you know deep inside that you have what it takes to transform someone's life, but when you go to have that "sales conversation" your confidence wavers and you walk away with no new client?

Are you so afraid to come across as pushy in the selling process, that you actually allow the client to control the conversation? (and again, no new client!)

Do you feel a hole in your stomach the size of Saturn when you think about sales because you just can't figure out how to get your message across without annoying people in the process?

Successful selling is THE BIGGEST BARRIER between you being able to...

- Live your purpose every single day
- Do what you love without ever worrying about "how much it costs"
- Transform the lives of those you are meant to deeply touch
- Watch your bank account grow while you feel like you are "just doing what you love"

Sales is a necessary skill set, and yet, for most one of the scariest to conquer!

So how do you conquer something you are TERRIFIED of and turned OFF by? When most of us are scared of something, we do anything possible to avoid the pain of the problem.

One of my top clients told me she'd "Rather walk out into the middle of traffic than make a sales call..."

Another brilliant client of mine refers to her sales stress saying "I stare at my '10,000 pound' phone."

As recently as this week I heard another woman entrepreneur say that she "feels creepy selling..."

I can't tell you how often I hear women in their aversion to sales saying, "I feel like a fraud!"

The LAST label we want as conscious women business owners is to feel like we're being "salesy" or pushy...

Why?

Because it reeks of being inauthentic, makes us feel like we're practically harassing others and is so clearly the OPPOSITE of our community's mission and values!

So if you're a woman entrepreneur who wants to break through this fear and shatter the "sales barrier" for once and for all, then I have something I want to share with you...

You know – with all your heart – that your products and services will help people and transforms lives.

And you know that in order to make your business successful, you have to make sales.

But you no longer have to choose between feeling too afraid to pitch your services and feeling like a "used car salesman".

There is another option that will allow you to make sales from a place of integrity... and a place where you actually feel GOOD about it!

Become A Sales Superstar

This is my course that gives you the tools, techniques, exact questions to ask and even scripts so that you too can feel confident and comfortable in your own skin when you sell your packages and programs.

So that you can feel 100% in integrity when making sales calls... and you never again have to feel like you are being pushy or "salesy".

So you can overcome your fears of selling your own products and services and make more money now (and finally get out of the money struggle!)

I want to share something personal with you...

It's the deeper essence behind why I'm offering this Sales course.

Yes, I'm here to help you...

But for you to be powerful and effective with "selling" you MUST understand what it's really about... and it's anything BUT "selling" in the way you currently think of sales.

There is nothing "salesy" or pushy about being a Sales Superstar!

Chances are, the prospects you are in conversation with need to work with you to further their goals, desires and even their destiny!

I do not believe in convincing or persuading anyone to do anything they are not in alignment with.

With my course, you will discover how you can sell by simply being a fiercely loving advocate and calling people to their highest and best life.

If you're like most women entrepreneurs, the top 3 problems holding you back likely are:

- The inability to confidently offer your services to the right people.
- Feeling weird and insecure about receiving money for your programs and products.
- Lack of self-value and self-worth to charge what you're worth and actually get it.

The reason I know these are the top 3 problems, is because I used to have each of these top 3 problems in spades!

Overcoming these 3 problems has been THE key to my success!

Today, sales for me has a joyful connotation!

Today, I'm fortunate that I have given myself permission to go for my dreams, hire the best coaches, and I am able to make money doing what I love...

Because I feel confident, authentic and powerful in selling my own programs and services.

I didn't use to "love sales"...TRUST me!

I've now come to enjoy "sales" because it's now as joyful as having a cup of tea with a friend.

For me (now) the sales process is very natural, non-desperate and authentic.

The result?

From a relaxed place in my core, I'm consistently able to "sell" $1k, $10k, $25, $50k packages and programs.

I know that I am meant to empower women and serve them greatly...

Which is why, after MANY requests from my current clients who know my work and have seen me share snippets of what I say on "sales calls"...

I am inviting you to listen to this AMAZING, life-changing course for only $97!

I do want other women to feel as confident and as empowered as I do when I'm on the phone, or live in person, or even writing copy on the internet.

I do have an extremely high "closing ratio"...and believe it or not, that is not the most important piece here.

The reason why I'm allegedly "good at sales" is because I know how to relate to others and communicate with them in an authentic and soulful way.

Also, I'm confident in myself, my ability to serve, I know what I can do and what I can't, and I LOVE helping other women succeed.

So if I am able to help them, great, I let them know—and that's not about "taking their money"...it's about helping them.

Upon being "forced" to come up with exact scripts, steps and methodology on how I confidently sell without being pushy, I've created this course to help you realize your potential!

When you purchase this life changing audio based course for only $97 you will gain immediate access to all the tools, techniques, exact questions and even scripts so that you too can feel confident and comfortable in your own skin when you sell your packages and programs.
